READ TO EVERY KID EVERY DAY—YEAR 10!

Read to Every Kid Every Day is an annual literacy project—now in its 10th year!—that promotes the importance of daily reading to children by voting to choose Leeds and Grenville's favourite children's book.

Between the beginning of October and Family Literacy Day in January, children are encouraged to read from a selection of nominated picture books and vote for their favourite book. The winning book will be revealed at a special event at the Brockville Memorial Centre on Saturday, January 26 from 10am-12pm.

All the nominated titles are available to read in the library, plus we have bags with complete sets of books that you can sign out and share at home.

Like the Read to Every Kid Every Day Facebook page for fun videos, links, and up to date information on the project.
