delivering the library to you!

Brockville Public Library will deliver resources to customers' homes or places of residence when they are unable to visit the Library.

- * customers must have a current BPL card.
- * Library materials will be delivered by volunteers on a set/pre-arranged schedule.
- * reading and format preference lists are coordinated with the Library's home outreach staff member.

BPL will also deliver to retirement homes but, at this time, does not provide the service to nursing homes due to access and retrieval logistics.

library materials available for delivery

- * regular and large-print books
- * talking books (books on CD)
- * music CDs
- * DVDs (7 day selection)
- * Daisy books

A network of friendly volunteers deliver Library materials on the second Thursday of each month.

Note: If you are unable to leave your home, unable to make arrangements for someone to visit the Library for you, or have a friend or relative who would benefit from this special service, please contact the Brockville Public Library for further information.
