Candace is a Métis descendant with family ties from both Saskatchewan and Northern Ontario. Candace is a Traditional Knowledge Holder of Métis Way of Life, Culture, History, Arts and Language (Michif). Candace's knowledge was passed down as oral tradition from her grandmothers, aunts, uncles, her parents and elders within her community. Candace is also a teacher candidate at Queen's University in the Aboriginal Teacher Education Program. Candace has a wide range of teachings to offer the youth in schools today and looks forward to sharing those teachings.
